

Fakrul Choudhury MBE

Since graduating with a law degree in 1998, Fakrul has held several posts in a range of diverse industries. He has over 20 years' experience working with young people from different socio economical, ethnic, religious and ability backgrounds. Fakrul has extensive experience working in local authority (in Equality Policy Development) as well as the third sector. Fakrul is an experienced trainer and has expertise in: third sector development, Equality and Diversity and community and cultural activity development. He also has post graduate qualifications in Equality and Islamic Studies.

Fakrul has also worked in the Further Education sector on a number of different projects. This has ranged from the coordination of student mentoring programmes to the delivery of NQV programmes to adults. He is also a qualified adult tutor and NVQ assessor.

Fakrul has been an active volunteer carrying, developing and delivering a range of programmes mainly in the borough of Oldham. These projects include, education programmes for young people, sports initiatives for the wider community as well as community cohesion initiatives across the borough. Fakrul was recently awarded an MBE in recognition of his efforts