

Jawad is a qualified Lawyer by profession with over 20 years of experience. He is also a qualified Commercial Mediator of 10 years and is often called upon for community mediation as well professional civil and commercial mediation. He also advises various charities and mosques in the UK in a professional capacity.

Jawad is a trustee at one of the largest Mosques in Manchester. He is a director of Communities 4 All, a none profit organisation in North Manchester, providing key services to those most difficult to reach in Manchester. The organisation has won the prestigious Queens Award for voluntary service.

Jawad was previously a mentor for 10 years at his former secondary school in Moss Side, Manchester and worked in the inner city of Cheetham Hill during the same period, extensively involved in youth work.

Jawad is passionate about education and is the chair of governors for 2 local state funded schools and a board member for his local primary church school.

Jawad has a further interest in peace & reconciliation work and has been acting as a moderator/facilitator with Professor Pdraig O'Malley from the John W. McCormack Graduate School of Policy and Global Studies University, Massachusetts Boston on various projects in the EU.